Village Originals is a mission driven program to commission and produce new musicals that achieve national exposure. This process helps to foster the growth of new musicals in America and around the world. Over 3,300 people attended Village Originals programming throughout the year which includes the Festival of New Musical and the Beta Series. The Festival, held annually in Issaquah, WA, features readings and discussion of five new musicals over a three day period. The Beta Series is a series of three developmental performances. A Beta Series performance may be a developmental production with minimal sets and costumes or an advanced stage reading with no sets or costumes. Both experiences help the creative team see how their production does in front of a live audience. Village Theatre is one of only a handful of professional theatre companies throughout the country that commissions and develops new musicals. Village Theatre's reputation in this arena continues to grow on a national and international level. The Village Originals program also hosts residencies for writers with uncompleted scripts, which aims to give them dedicated, focused time to develop further ideas, general materials, and test drafts with professional actors, while receiving constant feedback and dramaturgical support.
