Following the unprecedented success of Village Theatre's 2014-2015 Season, the 2015-2016 Season continued to solidify Village Theatre as one of the top theatres in the region, once again pushing the bounds of production quality and touching the hearts of audience members all across the Puget Sound.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The Season opened with Stephen Schwartz's new musical scrapbook, Snapshots, which weaves together songs that are from 12 other shows in a uniquely imagined celebration of Schwartz's career. First seen on our stage as a Developmental Production in 2005, we were thrilled to welcome the heartwarming story—as well as Broadway-legend Stephen Schwartz—back to the theatre for a full-scale production heralded by the Issaquah Press as “hysterically funny and heart-achingly poignant.”

The holiday season saw the return of Pulitzer Prize-winner and Village Theatre favorite Brian Yorkey, directing a sumptuous production of My Fair Lady. With an all-star cast of local talent and an inspired team of designers, the production transported audiences to the London of the lovely Eliza Doolittle, earning six Gregory Award nominations—the highest number for a single production. As noted by the Ellensburg Daily Record, “Every aspect of this production drips with impeccable style and sophistication.”

Next on stage was Crimes of the Heart, Beth Henley's Pulitzer-prize winning dark comedy portraying the dysfunctional lives of three sisters in the rural South. Unfolding amidst the nostalgic charm of an old Southern kitchen, the actresses playing the Magrath sisters, all making their Village Theatre debuts, elicited laughter and tears with their raw, emotionally-charged performances. The Eastside Scene praised the show, saying, “Crimes of the Heart shows its strength in the way the Magrath sisters play off each other and grow as a family greater than its individual parts.”

In a visually stunning and thematically challenging World Premiere production, My Heart Is the Drum transformed our stage into a rural Ghanaian village and filled the theatre with driving African rhythms. Originally seen in our Village Originals program at the 2014 Festival of New Musicals, the musical tells a story of strength, courage, and the love that sustains us through harrowing circumstances. Winning the Gregory Award for both Outstanding Actor and Outstanding Actress, My Heart Is the Drum brought audiences to their feet during a joyous finale and left critics raving. The Eastside Scene deemed the show “damn near transcendent,” and the Issaquah Press wrote, “By the time the final curtain falls...you'll know you've just witnessed something extraordinary.”

Finally, Elton John's spectacular hit, Billy Elliot, closed out the season, moving patrons with its heartfelt story and electric dance numbers. Among our most ambitious productions to date, the show featured four young actors rotating in the title role—one of the most difficult roles in musical theatre, and one that required nearly a year of training in preparation. The production enjoyed record-breaking sales and quickly became a fan favorite, with one superfan—who has seen the show 85 times in various productions—raving, “This production truly stands among the greats. It was polished, and virtually flawless. The performance left me surprised at the end, that I wasn't exiting the theatre onto the streets of London or New York.”

VILLAGE ORIGINALS

Over the past 37 years, Village Theatre has worked on the development of over 155 new musicals. Village Originals is a nationally-recognized program and represents one of the strongest commitments to new musicals anywhere. This unique program nurtures writers and composers through the full developmental process, from first table readings to full-scale premiere productions. The polished new works generated through Village Originals are part of Village Theatre's five show Mainstage line-up, alongside the classics.

FESTIVAL OF NEW MUSICALS

The Festival of New Musicals is held each summer in August at the Francis J. Gaudette Theatre, drawing performers, directors, writers, composers, and producers from all over the country, even internationally. This year marked Village Originals' 16th Festival, which included the shows Costs of Living, How To Break, We Foxes, String, and Writing Kevin Taylor, along with a special Northwest Songwriters Showcase which featured songs from various new musicals composed in the Pacific Northwest. Each of the readings resulted in valuable feedback to the authors provided by the audience both in a talk-back following the show as well as surveys submitted after the show. This Festival was also the first to be produced by Village Theatre's new Associate Artistic Director, Brandon Ivie. Along with being instrumental in the selection of the shows for the Festival, Ivie revamped the talk-back format, resulting in increased engagement from audiences as well as more targeted and specific feedback for the writing teams.

This Season, the artistic staff announced the expansion of Village Originals with the launch of The Beta Series, which will begin in the 2016-2017 Season with three Developmental Productions at First Stage Theatre in Issaquah. This exciting new program is intended to provide a much needed intermediate step between readings and world premiere productions for authors in the midst of the creative process. The first season of The Beta Series will include two shows from the 16th Annual Festival of New Musicals, String and Writing Kevin Taylor, as well as a previous Festival favorite, Cubamor.

Village Theatre's Youth Education and Community Outreach programs served over 60,200 young people, families, and educators throughout the Puget Sound. Available to all regardless of the ability to pay, the programs provide healthy out of school time activities, stimulate learning through the arts in schools, provide access to the arts for underserved populations, develop young artists, and promote skills for enriched and successful lives. A major goal in the 2015-2016 season was to expand efforts to build the diversity of the program because all students benefit from a multi-cultural and inclusive environment. In addition to outreach, partnerships and hiring more teaching artists and theatre professionals of color, we also provided racial equity training to our staff and teaching artists. In just one year we have seen a dramatic increase in participation by students of color.

YOUTH EDUCATION

KIDSTAGE is a youth development program that advances Skills for Theatre... Skills for Life through after-school classes, camps, productions and apprenticeships, and in-school workshops and residencies. 3,335 students directly worked with professional artists, designers, and arts educators to build social and theatrical skills and explored all facets of theatre and musical theatre.

YOUTH EDUCATION

KIDSTAGE continues work with the nationwide Youth Program Quality Initiative (YPQI). The YPQI is both a professional development program and data driven assessment tool that helps ensure youth engagement and program quality. It was funded for a fourth year by the Raikes Foundation. Two elementary schools on the Eastside continued their partnership with KIDSTAGE to bring theatre arts into every classroom. These programs are in their fifth year. The Youth Education Program continued for a second year to work with the Everett School District to provide a field trip to the theatre and theatre workshops to all 6th grade ELL (English Language Learners) students.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Pied Piper is a theatre for young audiences series and arts in education program that brings literature to life in the classroom and on stage for schools and the public at very affordable prices.

- 22,915 students throughout East King, Snohomish, and Island Counties joined their class or family to attend a Pied Piper presentation in a theatre in Bellevue, Issaquah, Everett, or Mount Vernon.
- 4,916 students received free tickets or theatre workshops.
- Nearly 300 people attended a free Sensory Friendly performance thanks to funding from the Mark and Vickie Fund of the Nysether Family Foundation.

Free Performances for the Public

- Everett KIDSTAGE performed for 2,000 audience members this summer in the Wetmore Theatre Plaza with six free performances of Annie KIDS and selections from both summer shows, Sweeney Todd and Hairspray.
- SummerStock production of Hairspray in Everett provided a Pay-What-You-Can performance for 517 people.
- 200 people attended one of two free KIDSTAGE performances during the City of Everett's popular Wintertide event.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

During the 2015-2016 Season, Village Theatre produced five outstanding shows in its Mainstage season with a total 392 performances. The Mainstage season saw attendance of 95,580 patrons in Issaquah and 55,219 in Everett. Total number of subscribers decreased less than 1% from the prior year, bringing the total number of subscribers to 19,252.

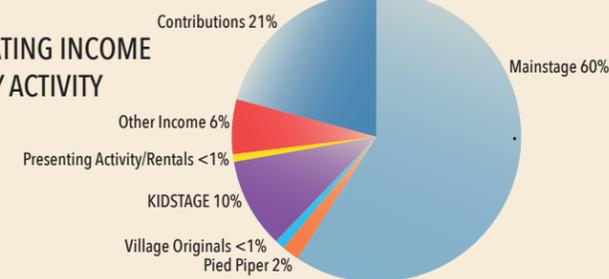

KIDSTAGE continued to expand and saw another year of 5% growth in revenue. Attendance at the 10 KIDSTAGE productions throughout the year was over 17,000. The Pied Piper program presented 5 shows to school groups and families and saw overall attendance of nearly 25,000. The Village Originals program, which continues to attract local, as well as national attention from writers and directors across the country, produced another successful Festival of New Musicals in the summer and announced a new Beta Series of three developmental productions to occur in 2016-2017.

Total earned revenue from operations remained stable with a 1% increase from the prior year. Through the generous support of our patrons, foundations, corporate and government partners, contributions exceeded $2.45 million dollars which represents a 5.9% increase from the prior year. Operating expenses had a slight increase of 1.7% from the prior year mainly due to inflation. Overall, due to the combined efforts of a supportive community and a creative and dedicated Village Theatre team, the organization ended the year with an operating surplus before depreciation (a noncash expenditure) of $254,869. When combining operations and capital campaign activity, the overall change in net assets was an increase of $45,026.

Beginning in 2005, Village Theatre launched a capital campaign. The campaign proceeds were used to purchase land and build the new Technical Studios, which house the scene, prop and paint shops, reconstruct First Stage, convert an Everett City building into a theatre and education facility and cover the cost of the campaign. The campaign goal as of August 31, 2016 is $10 million. As of August 31, 2016 and 2015, $9,797,339 and $9,744,587 respectively, had been pledged or given towards that goal. The Craig and Joan Watjen Technical Studios were completed in 2007 and reconstruction of First Stage was completed in March 2011. The Everett Youth Education Center (now called The Cope Gillette Theatre) was completed in September 2011. In 2016, land was purchased for a future warehouse construction project.

Village Theatre began planning for an endowment campaign as part of the Board's long term strategic plan to grow an endowment to help provide future financial stability. The goal for this endowment is $14 million. As of August 31, 2016 the endowment consists of donor-restricted funds established for Village Originals, and operations and includes $16,431 of permanently restricted net assets and $15,080 of temporarily restricted accumulated unspent earnings.

THE MISSION OF VILLAGE THEATRE

To be a regionally recognized and nationally influential center of excellence in family theatre:

- To promote a season of top quality productions
- To commission and produce new musicals that achieve national exposure
- To train young people in theatre skills for career opportunities and enriched lives
- To develop a broad-based appreciation for live theatre
- To promote positive values through art

CAPITAL & ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGNS

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Beginning in August 31, 2005 Village Theatre began a $10 million capital campaign. Under the title of Building for the Future, the campaign was originally chaired by the late Craig Watjen and philanthropist Peter Horvitz. The campaign proceeds were first used to purchase land and build the Craig & Joan Watjen Technical Studios (Phase I) completed in October 2007. Then they funded the reconstruction of First Stage Theatre (Phase II) completed in 2009. The final phase (Phase III) of funding was used to convert an Everett City building into a theatre and education facility—The Cope Gillette Theatre. Fundraising efforts during the 2015-2016 Season focused on completing the final Phase III of funding for The Cope Gillette. At the end of the fiscal year with continued support of Village Theatre donors, $9,797,339 has been raised.

ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN

In 2016, the Board of Directors, along with Village Theatre leadership and the Development Team, set a goal and started planning for a comprehensive $14 million endowment campaign for Village Theatre.
